Grants Program Review and Advisory Committee Charter

1. The official designation of this advisory committee is the "Grants Program Review and Advisory Committee."
2. The Committee shall advise the Director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service on methods of improving the efficiency of the Labor-Management Cooperation Grants Program; participate in reviewing grants applicants and advise the Grants Program Manager on appropriate grant recipients; and otherwise review, evaluate and make recommendations on the grants program.
3. The Committee will be composed of five grant review boards. Each board will focus on a review of the following areas: Industry labor-management committee review, area committee review, in-plant committee review, public (state and local) committee review, or public education committee review. The boards will then convene as the full committee to discuss their findings and make recommendations to the agency.
4. Each review board will consist of three individuals selected from the following pool of individuals: three representatives from state government labor-management programs, three former grantees, one member from a national trade union association, one from a national business or industry organization, one from the National Labor-Management Association, one from a professional association such as the Industrial Relations Research Association, and five federal mediators. One federal mediator will sit on each board. No committee member shall have submitted a grant pending review with the Grants Program.
5. In view of the foregoing objectives and scope of activity, the Panel is expected to continue for not longer than a period of four months, beginning on June 1, 1995, and terminating on September 30, 1995.

6. The Committee will report to the Director and the Grants Program Manager as requested.
7. Necessary support will be provided by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.
8. The duties of the Committee are solely advisory and are described in number "2" above.
9. The estimated annual operating costs for the Committee are travel and per diem expenses for committee members for meetings held in Washington, DC. This is expected to cost approximately $10,000.
10. The full Committee or its Review Boards will meet as often as necessary at the call of Peter Regner, who is the Chair of the Committee.
11. This charter was filed with the following on March 17, 1995:
Mr. Michael Neff, Committee Management Secretariat, General Services Administration, 18th and F Streets NW., CAM, Room 7007, Washington, DC 20405
Library of Congress, Exchange and Gifts Division, Federal Documents Section, Federal Advisory Committee Desk, LM 632, 101 Independence Avenue, SE., Washington, DC 20540-4200.

Additional information regarding the Grants Program Review and Advisory Committee may be obtained from the Grants Program Manager, Mr. Peter Regner, Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, Washington, DC 20427, telephone: (202) 606-8181.

Dated: March 17, 1995.

John Calhoun Wells,
Director, Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Fleet Financial Group, Inc.; Acquisition of Company Engaged in Permissible Nonbanking Activities

The organization listed in this notice has applied under § 225.23(a)(2) or (f) of the Board's Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.23(a)(2) or (f)) for the Board's approval under section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and § 225.21(a) of Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.21(a)) to acquire or control voting securities or assets of a company engaged in a nonbanking activity that is listed in § 225.25 of Regulation Y as closely related to banking and permissible for bank holding companies. Unless otherwise noted, such activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

The application is available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Once the application has been accepted for processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any request for a hearing on this question must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal.

Comments regarding the application must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than May 1, 1995.

BILLING CODE 6210-01-F

National City Corporation; Application to engage in certain Nonbanking Activities

National City Corporation, Cleveland, Ohio (Applicant), has applied pursuant to section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) (BHC Act) and § 225.23(a)(3) of the Board's Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.23(a)(3)), to acquire Raffensperger, Hughes & Co., Incorporated, Indianapolis, Indiana, and thereby engage through NatCity Investments, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio (Company), in underwriting and dealing in debt and equity securities of all types, other than shares of open-end investment companies. These activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

Applicant maintains that the Board previously has determined that the proposed activities are closely related to banking. Applicant states that Company would conduct the proposed activities within the limitations and prudential guidelines established by the Board in previous orders. See Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, 76 Federal Reserve Bulletin 158 (1990); J.P. Morgan & Co. Incorporated, et al., 75 Federal Reserve Bulletin 192 (1989), aff'd sub nom. Securities Industries Ass'n v. Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 900 F.2d 360 (D.C. Cir. 1990); and Citicorp, et al., 73 Federal Reserve Bulletin 473 (1987), aff'd sub nom. Securities Industry Ass'n v. Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 839 F.2d 47 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 486 U.S. 1059 (1988). In connection with its application, Applicant has requested permission to retain the director and officer interlocks between Company and its affiliated banks previously permitted by the Board. See National City Corporation, 80 Federal Reserve Bulletin 346 (1994). Applicant also has requested that the securities brokerage subsidiary of National City Bank, Cleveland, Ohio, be permitted to act as introducing broker for customers in securities transactions that would be forwarded to Company for execution and clearance, and that Company be permitted to calculate compliance with the revenue limitation on an annualized basis during the first year following consummation of the acquisition since Applicant is acquiring a going concern. See First of America Corporation, 80 Federal Reserve Bulletin 1120 (1994); Dauphin Deposit Corporation, 77 Federal Reserve Bulletin 672 (1991).

In order to approve the proposal, the Board must determine that the proposed activities to be conducted by Company "can reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." 12 U.S.C. § 1843(c)(8). Applicant believes that the proposal would produce public benefits that outweigh any potential adverse effects. In particular, Applicant maintains that the proposal would enhance competition and enable Applicant to offer its customers a broader range of products. Applicant also maintains that its proposal would not result in any adverse effects.

In publishing the proposal for comment, the Board does not take a position on issues raised by the proposal. Notice of the proposal is published solely to seek the views of interested persons on the issues presented by the application and does not represent a determination by the Board that the proposal meets, or is likely to meet, the standards of the BHC Act.

Any comments or requests for hearing should be submitted in writing and received by William W. Wiles, Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551, not later than May 5, 1995. Any request for a hearing on this application must, as required by § 262.3(e) of the Board's Rules of Procedure (12 CFR 262.3(e)), be accompanied by a statement of the reasons why a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal.

This application may be inspected at the offices of the Board of Governors or the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, April 11, 1995.

Jennifer J. Johnson,

Deputy Secretary of the Board.
